9. “Rachel Owens: Interactive Games and Performances” at Geary, Millerton, New York

Rachel Owens’s current solo show, “Real Fragile” (through July 24), at Geary’s Upstate location, features sculptures inspired by her move from New York to Armenia in 2020. In conjunction with the exhibition, the artist is staging an afternoon of performances and games at the gallery inspired by the work of Theater of the Oppressed founder Augusto Boal, the Brazilian political activist who used interactive performances to spark political change.

Location: Geary, 34 Main Street, Millerton, New York

Price: Free

Time: 4 p.m.–5 p.m.
